How many varieties are there all together?. I see Scott & Co. give 74.

If any one had all the varieties, would it be necessary for him to have all those where face & back are printed seperately. to have a complete set?

If you will please answer these questions You will greatly oblige me.

Messrs. S.H.&H.H. Chapman:

Gentlemen:

I enclose you Seventy Five (75¢) in Stamps for the 15¢ Specimen. Did you sent me last week ——.

What will you get me a full set of U.S. cents for (from 1793 to 1857)? I only want one of each date and then I can get the varieties if I wish afterwards. I want them in good or very good condition; of course I dont mean such condition for the 1793, 99 & 1804. I dont know as I will get them only I would like to know the price in case I should buy. I Enclose Postal for reply.

Very Respectfully,

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman:

Gentlemen.

Your letter of 3rd, containing Circ. Cy. received the 8th.

I have looked the Cy. over and find that I have a specimen of nearly the varieties you send. The prices I think are reasonable but I can only afford to obtain a single variety of each.

I have 75 distinct varities in my collection.

I hardly feel able to collect U.S. cents just now, as I want to get Good to Fine ones when I do. As soon as I want the Cents I will let you know and I think we can Trade.

Thanking you for the trouble you have taken in sending me the Cy. on approval and hoping soon to have need of some of your stock I remain.

Very Respectfully

Luther B. Tuttle

Dear Sir

Your favor of 16th received.

I inclose 5 varieties of the 1000 "Dollar" at 50¢ each — $2.50

I have selected the best specimen I have and one of each variety.

I am selling the $100 1861 note, @ 1.50 each, but as the upper margin is trimmed too close sell to you at 50¢ each all around.

I still believe that I have all of them notes that are in the market as to the 1000 & 500 Montgomery notes.

I have 4 of each variety, all in extremely fine condition, with the exception of the 1000 notes are cancelled thus #. no part of the note gone.

I gave 80 a pair for them notes and want $100 a pair for them. If you have a customer for any I will divide profit with you. I am prepared to purchase them notes now at $80 a pair in equally fine condition.

My are without doubt the hardest to obtain of any CSA's and in the most demand.

Respectfull Luther B Luttrell

S. H. & H. Chapman,

Gentlemen:

Your favor of the 29th. ulto., with Mass. Note, received. Thank you. I dont know as I need any thing special now.

Broken bank notes, finely engraved and those with printed backs are in demand; if you have any thing in these I would like to have prices; I will take any quantity.

When I was at your place, a year ago last Feby., you showed me some uncirculated U.S. Greenbacks, ones, twos and fives.

This Spring I bought a lot of ones and twos pretty cheap. There is very little demand for them but thought they would not loose anything.

What will you let me have one or two of the fives forand if you wish to close the lot out, I will be pleased to have prices.

Respectfully,
